

INTERDISCIPLINARY COLLABORATIVE PRACTICE (ICP)

CELEBRATING 10 YEARS

In 2020 Relationships Australia NSW celebrates 10 years of providing Interdisciplinary Collaborative Practice training. Led by some of the most experienced collaborative family lawyers, coaches, financial neutrals and child consultants in the country, this training provides a solid grounding in ICP theory and structure as well as the opportunity to learn and practice the skills of working in this way in a safe and supportive environment. This course will provide you with the opportunity to gain CLE points and become eligible to join the RANSW Practice group when vacancies occur. You will also be eligible to apply for membership of Collaborative Professionals NSW, the Australian Association of Collaborative Professionals and be supported in establishing a local Practice Group.
